

Isabel “Didi” Cutler is a freelance photographer and lecturer specializing in the Middle East. Cutler has been commissioned by the governments of Kuwait, Qatar, Spain, Syria, and Oman to photograph their countries. She is currently giving illustrated lectures on the many facets of Syria. Venues for her exhibitions in the United States have included The Aspen Institute, The National Press Club, The Organization of American States, The Meridian International Center, The President George H.W. Bush Memorial Library, The Four Seasons Hotel, and the embassies of Spain, Qatar, Kuwait, Colombia, and Tunisia in Washington, D.C. Mrs. Cutler serves on the Board of Young Concert Artists, and Co-Chaired with her husband Ambassador Walter Cutler the Refugees International Gala in May 2012.