

Deborah Newhouse Dunham is a Certified Geriatric Case Manager and Certified Aging in Place Specialist in private practice in Northern Virginia. From 1996 to 2012 she was affiliated with Elderlink, Options for Caregiving, in Fairfax, Virginia. Deborah currently serves on Board of Directors and Executive Committee of Eden Alternative, a worldwide organization focused on de-institutionalizing nursing homes and long-term care institutions through training and education. Deborah served for six years on the Board of Directors of the Alzheimer’s Association, National Capital Area Chapter, and was Vice Chair for Programs and Community Outreach and a member of the Executive Committee. She was also a long-time volunteer with the chapter. She served at the community level on The Fairfax County Senior Citizen Housing Advisory Board and appeared with Mason District Supervisor Penny Gross on the County program “Mason Matters.” Prior to changing her professional focus, Deborah worked in the engineering design field for companies in Texas and Northern Virginia.