

Gail Berry West is a retired attorney who formerly headed both the Washington Offices of Armstrong World Industries and Bell Communications Research. In both of these positions she was responsible for providing the full range of governmental affairs advice, developing policy and coordinating the company's response on all legislative matters and executive agency actions. She was an appointee of the Carter Administration where she held positions of Special Assistant to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Patricia Roberts Harris, Staff Assistant to Sarah Weddington, Assistant to President Carter and completed her public service as Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force. She began her legal career in the office of the General Counsel of IBM.