SUMMARY

In January 2013 Ms. Klass retired from the information technology industry after 40 years' holding managerial and executive positions. Her expertise includes management of organizations providing information technology solutions, products and services to Federal Government agencies as a prime contractor or through partners.

She has dedicated much of her time in the last 8 years to volunteering for THIS for Diplomats, a volunteer organization dedicated to fostering mutual understanding and friendship between and among the diplomatic community and Americans. She has served on the finance committee and as Treasurer of the organization. As a member of the Architectural Garden and Home Design and American Look Committees, she has chaired many events and initiated the Annual Diplomatic Family Day at Glen Echo Park, a widely attended program. She was elected to serve a one year term as President of the organization in May 2015.
